Guys: we just received a great ruling from J. New in the Philly mass tort program denying Ethicon/J and J motions to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction. That means eight (8) trials, scheduled to begin in Nov, will move forward. Our first set of expert reports are due June 18th. Can we set up a meeting or call to discuss what generic experts/reports we should use in these cases. We can discuss the details later but they involve the Prolift, TVT Retropubic, TVT Secure and Gynemesh. I will be in Vegas for the PSC meeting if it makes sense to meet then . . otherwise we can schedule a call for next week. Thanks, Lee

New was very strident.

It seems that New and Goodwin are talking. New appears to be doing Goodwin's bidding, which may explain why he denied the motions to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction.

Hi Bryan and Adam –
FYI, we had a very interesting conference with J. New this morning in the Philly TVM Mass Tort Program. This was our first conference since the Judge denied Ethicon's Motion to Dismiss/Preliminary Objections regarding Jurisdiction.

We now have 7 cases listed for trial. The first one will be Hammons (Prolift) on December 7, 2015. (Hansen – a Gynemesh case - will be moved to the spot previously held by Matthews, which will be dismissed. A new CMO for Hansen will be forwarded to J. New today. The new Hansen trial date is March 7, 2016.)

J. New then asked for a status of 'discussions.' LBB and SS reported that discussions have started with all defendants, except for Ethicon. Julie Callsen confirmed to Judge New that Ethicon was not participating in any settlement discussions with anyone.

J. New then turned to Ethicon's counsel and told them it is time to begin discussions – "It is time to sit down and begin discussions to resolve these cases." He said, "You know the verdicts." "Don't push your luck." "You don't need more time." He told them to take a hard look at the cases and get them resolved. He also told them that he would "make it tough for them." He ordered a report on the status of discussions by the next monthly meeting on May 4th. Before we left, he looked at Ethicon's counsel and said, "I'm serious."
